

ABOUT THE ABLE FLIGHT™ CAREER TRAINING SCHOLARSHIP

Able Flight's mission is to offer people with disabilities a unique way to challenge themselves through flight training, and by doing so, to gain greater self-confidence and self-reliance.

Able Flight extends this opportunity for a career in aviation to people with physical disabilities.

Scholarship criteria:

1. The applicant must be willing to commit to a very challenging and demanding career training experience. The Able Flight Career Training Scholarship is designed to offer training for a variety of aviation careers, including (but not limited to), the FAA issued Repairman Certificate (Light Sport Aircraft) with Maintenance Rating and Airline Dispatcher. Funds may also be used in support of academic training for aviation careers.
2. Award recipients must agree to allow accounts of their training experience to be used in print and electronic media (this includes text, still and video images).
3. Applicants must be at least 18 years old at the beginning of training, and a United States citizen.
4. Scholarships are valid for training at Able Flight approved training facilities.
5. Upon submission, applications will receive an initial review, with some applications selected for follow-up interviews. Awards will then be determined by the Able Flight Scholarship Review Committee.
7. Scholarship recipients are notified of their selection by phone, with additional information provided via email.
9. If an applicant provides false information on the application, it will void the scholarship.

ABLE FLIGHT
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, RELEASE, AND INDEMNITY

I understand that training can be a dangerous activity, and have chosen to participate in this activity only after a careful consideration of the risks involved. I understand that the mechanical devices necessary to provide access for people with disabilities to aircraft may increase those risks. I understand that all training, as well as transportation and lodging associated with such training, will be provided by third parties, and that Able Flight is not responsible for the actions of these third parties. I understand that Able Flight makes no warranties or representations regarding the quality of training instructors or the condition of aircraft or materials and tools used in training. I hereby release Able Flight, as well as its directors, employees, and agents, from any liability arising out of or relating to my training, including liability for negligence. This release includes, without limitation, claims arising during training, while on the ground at the training facility, and while traveling to or from such training. I agree to indemnify Able Flight, as well as its directors, employees, and agents, for any claims against them, including attorneys' fees and other costs associated with the defense of such claims, arising out of my participation in the program.
